

Get Connected: making the most of digital

Saturday 11 September 2010, St George's Bristol, 11am to 6pm

Making Music's 75th birthday conference and AGM will take place in the beautiful concert venue of St George's in Bristol on 11 September. Book your place to join us, where we will be:

- Sharing our new organisational plan and what we will be doing for and with you over the next five years
- Welcoming a representative from the newly-formed government
- Launching our new website with interactive tools and new services
- Focusing on digital - from demystifying social media to online marketing and selling tickets, helping you develop the way you communicate with audiences and each other and raise the profile of what you do
- Holding a networking session for concert promoters
- Running a vocal workshop around the winning song in our competition to write a birthday song for Making Music

50th anniversary season of the Award for Young Concert Artists

We will also be celebrating our birthday and the start of the 50th anniversary season of the Award for Young Concert Artists with a drinks reception, early evening gala concert featuring alumni from the scheme and a buffet supper.
