GENERAL INFORMATION

William Howard is one of the most experienced and imaginative pianists performing in Britain today. Well known as founder pianist of the Schubert Ensemble, he has also performed as soloist in a dozen countries worldwide and at major UK venues (Wigmore Hall, South Bank, Bath, Brighton, Cheltenham Festivals etc). He can be heard on 30 CDs and has had a large number of pieces written for him by leading composers. He has made a particular study of Czech piano music.
