GENERAL INFORMATION

Comprising outstanding international performers from the spheres of medieval, world music and jazz, Joglaresa has a sound that is at once traditional and contemporary. Combining intoxicating elements of Medieval, Middle Eastern, Flamenco and Celtic musics, they meld together a sound that is both extrovert and intimate. Their infectious enthusiasm, combined with peerless skill, musicianship and extensive research, produces concerts that are full of Mediterranean passion. Concerts include The Queen Elizabeth Hall, Purcell Room, St. David's Hall, The Sage, Aldeburgh and more.

QUOTE

"Irresistibly catchy tunes ... Joglaresa's imaginative use of improvisation creates an exciting air of authenticity ... compulsive rhythmic energy ... luxuriantly ornamental solos"

The Telegraph

PROGRAMME SUGGESTIONS

- A Douce Dame Debonaire: Intimate and evocative songs of the troubadours and trouvères, with harp and voices (3 performers)
- B The Carpet of Dreams: Sweet and spicy spoken word and song with Britain's best-loved storyteller – Sally Pomme Clayton. (For adults, plus children over 9yrs - 4 performers)
- C Dancing in Tetuán: Ancient Judeo-Spanish songs connecting Cordoba to Calcutta, the C12th to the C21st (5 performers)

EDUCATIONAL WORK

Children's interactive workshop/concerts, teaching some of the group's rhythms and choruses. Workshops for keen amateur adults, in voice, repertoire, improvisation and percussion. Very experienced.
