BOX OFFICE AND EVENTS

Piers Lane

We welcome Piers Lane to give a performance of music by Rachmaninov alongside the boys of Radley College.

London-based Australian pianist Piers Lane has a worldwide reputation as an engaging, searching and highly versatile performer, at home equally in solo, chamber and concerto repertoire. Five times soloist at the BBC Proms, Piers Lane's wide-ranging concerto repertoire exceeds one hundred works and has led to engagements with many of the world's great orchestras, working recently with conductors like Sir Andrew Davis, Vassily Sinaisky, Gerard Schwartz and Brett Dean. Festival appearances have included Aldeburgh, Bard, Bath Mostly Mozart, Bergen, Cheltenham, Como Autumn Music, Prague Spring, Rockport, La Roque d'Anthéron, Ruhr Klavierfestival, Schloss vor Husum, Seattle and the Chopin festivals in Warsaw, Duszynki-Zdrój, Mallorca and Paris.

Tickets are free, but need to be reserved. If you have any questions about this event, please get in touch.

Friends & Volunteers of Sheffield Music Hub Help Sheffield Music Hub Fulfil Their Mission of Inclusivity

Money raised will go towards but not exclusively:

- The purchase of steel pans, sticks, and stands so we can set up a weekly Steel Pan Group which will be accessible to all children. No members of the group will be required to have any previous musical experience to join this group.
- The funding of places on our Furthering Talent programme. Details can be found here.
- The funding of free places in our music groups for children and young people in receipt of free school meals.

By supporting the Sheffield Music Hub's mission, it will enable them to reach children and young people from all backgrounds. It will also bring about increased learning, participation and meaningful progression for all children and young people.

Your donation will support the Sheffield Music Hub in carrying out their mission of inclusivity and providing opportunities to change children and young people's lives forever.

Please donate to our Just Giving Page, any amount is appreciated.
