

Elgar, Schubert & Barber Choral Journeys

Saturday 12th July 7:30pm
St. Edmund's Church, Roundhay

An evocative, folk-inspired programme from some of choral music's greatest storytellers.

Experience a journey through the music of six composers, from the tender emotion of Barber's Agnus Dei (Adagio for Strings) to Elgar's From the Bavarian Highlands. The beautiful music tells tales of dancing, lost love, lullabies and the thrill of the hunt.

Also featuring:

Bartok - Four Slovak Folksongs

Ligeti - Night and Morning

Schubert - Song of Miriam

Quilter - Love's Philosophy

Schubert - Ständchen,

Du bist die Ruh, Die Taubenpost

Leeds Festival Chorus

Tamsin Raitt (soprano)

Rebecca Taylor (piano)

Simon Wright (conductor)

Interval bar available

Scan below to book a ticket:

supported by the Elgar society

To find out more and book now: <https://www.trybooking.com/uk/EXGC>

Tickets £24, £18 (unreserved) or £12 for under 25s/students in full-time education