CONCERT PROGRAMME

The choir will be performing a mixture of well-known carols such as the Holy and the Ivy, Away in a Manger and the Twelve Days of Christmas, and stunning carols by James Macmillan, Becky McGlade, Cheryl Frances-Hoad and John Rutter. We'll also be featuring two movements of the Rachmaninov Vespers which you will be able to hear us perform in their entirety in March. As ever there will be seasonal readings and an opportunity for the audience to sing favourite carols.

Whitehall Choir, under its dynamic Music Director Joanna Tomlinson, is one of London's leading amateur choirs.

Joanna Tomlinson is also Artistic Director of the award-winning Farnham Youth Choirs and of Constanza Chorus and is the Principal Conductor of National Youth Choir of Great Britain Girls' Choir. Recent engagements include conducting Bach's Mass in B minor at Cadogan Hall with Constanza Chorus and the Orchestra of the Age of Enlightenment.

Pianist and organist Ian Tindale, accompanist of Whitehall Choir, studied at Cambridge and the Royal College of Music. In 2017 he was awarded the Pianist's Prize at the Wigmore Hall/Kohn Foundation Song Competition. Recent engagements have included song recitals across Europe and the UK, including performances at the Leeds Lieder and Ryedale Festivals.
