Come to Music for Everyone's Summer Singing Workshop

~ English Romantics ~

A rare opportunity to spend a day exploring the intimate choral delights of the English Partsong. Come and sing exquisite choral gems, including Pearsall's poignant Lay a Garland and heroic Sir Patrick Spens, Elgar's vivid As Torrents in Summer and Sterndale Bennett's inviting Come live with me alongside settings of Shakespeare texts by George MacFarren and Charles Wood.

The workshop will consider the style of singing required by these pieces and techniques for conveying their stories.

And to celebrate summer, a bowl of strawberries served during the afternoon - all part of the workshop experience!

Saturday 29 June, Nottingham Trent University, Clifton NG11 8NS
