

Leicester Symphony Orchestra invitation to Come & Play
Rachmaninov Symphonic Dances
on Sunday 27 January 2019
10am to 4.30pm
at Hodson Hall
Loughborough Grammar School

This is an exciting opportunity to join with LSO and enjoy playing through a piece that we wouldn't generally have the opportunity of playing. It is suitable for players around Grade 8 standard. You will be able to download (for private practice only) a copy of your part in advance and details will be sent on how to do this. It will be conducted by 2 excellent Oxford/Cambridge students, under the direction of former LSO conductor Roland Melia.

There will be tea & coffee provided in the morning and lunchtime breaks but please bring your own lunch. Don't forget a music stand as well.

Tea and cakes will be provided at the end of the afternoon.

The day is free but donations to LSO are welcome on the day towards music and venue expenses.

To register your place please send your details (see below) asap to leicesterso@hotmail.com. The deadline for registration is 15 November.

Details required:

Name

Instrument

Age if under 18 – please also give name and contact number of parent/responsible adult

Contact number

Email address