Bristol Concert Orchestra, conductor Stefan Hofkes

Saturday 17 March 2018, 7:30pm at St George's Bristol

Stravinsky Petrushka, Tchaikovsky Piano Concerto 1 & Rimsky-Korsakov

Maksim Kinasov

Maksim was born in Moscow, he began to learn music from the age of 5 and is a graduate of the Moscow State Tchaikovsky Conservatory.

He has won prizes in many piano competitions around Europe and is currently engaged in postgraduate studies at the Royal Northern College of Music.

They say all the good things come in threes, and tonight we have a veritable Russian doll made up of music by three of that country's finest composers:

Rimsky-Korsakov's Overture to The Tsar's Bride (the opera telling a dark tale of love, jealousy and betrayal) might be the smallest of that bunch, but two true giants vie for the position of top doll: Stravinsky's Petrushka – his vivacious depiction of the love triangle between three puppets magically brought to life, and, with an extra touch of authentic Russian in virtuoso soloist Maksim Kinasov, Tchaikovsky's 1st Piano Concerto which immediately sets out its dramatic and intensely romantic intentions from the very opening thunderous chords.

There will be a retiring collection for The Friends of Bristol Haematology and Oncology Centre

Tickets: £8-£15 (concessions £6-£13), children £1
£1 per transaction postage fee
