Perfect and perform classic choral works

Thames Philharmonic is a mixed choir of more than 80 members, students to senior, based in SW London. We work towards three major performances a year with professional soloists and orchestra, in well-known London concert venues, and regularly sing cathedral choral services. Rehearsals are interesting, hard work, fun and sociable, with top-grade coaching from founder and Artistic Director John Bate, former Music Director of Performance at Kingston University. We meet on Tuesday evenings, alternately in Putney and Richmond.

Subscription (2017-18): £80 per term or £215/year, excluding residencies. FREE for full-time students.
