

Spread the word...

COME & SING

WHAT? Come & sing Duruflé's Requiem & Schubert's Mass in G on 27 June 2020

WHERE? The Ulverston International Music Festival

WHEN? The Festival runs from 19 - 27 June 2020, culminating with the annual Choral Concert

WHY? As well as performing in a festival featuring some of the music world's top stars, you'll also get the chance to benefit from the expert tutelage of BBC Radio 4 conductor, John Powell

HOW? By taking part in 3 workshops* and the final performance

COME & SING

Since 2004, the Ulverston International Music Festival has treated enthusiastic audiences to not only some of the world's top stars and upcoming new talent, but has also encouraged and inspired local people to perform too.

This year, you have the opportunity to perform at the same festival as Dame Evelyn Glennie, Royal Northern Sinfonia, Catrin Finch & Seckou Keita, Jennifer Pike and Martin Roscoe.

The Ulverston Festival Chorus is looking for confident singers, that are preferably good music readers, to perform in the Choral Concert that closes this year's Festival. Held in Ulverston Parish Church on Saturday 27 June at 7.30pm, the repertoire comprises two contrasting works to provide you with a rewarding and enriching choral experience: Duruflé's Requiem and Schubert's Mass in G, both accompanied by organ.

You will benefit from the expert tutelage of John Powell whose enthusiasm and experience always helps achieve amazing results, whilst enjoying yourselves immensely!

Our three workshops, in the Church, are as follows:

Saturday 18 April [9.30am registration] 10am - 4pm

Saturday 23 May 10am - 4pm

Saturday 13 June 10am - 4pm

We ask that you attend at least two out of the three workshops.

Tea and coffee will be provided. Please arrange your own lunch.
Participation will be £20, payable at the first workshop you attend.
This one-off sub covers all workshops and the concert and music hire.

For further details or register, please contact Rowena Gibbons, ulverstonmusicfestival@gmail.com

ULVERSTONMUSICFESTIVAL.CO.UK