

WORKSHOP APPLICATION FORM

The participation fee is £20, to include two workshop sessions with coffee and tea in the breaks, and a sandwich lunch.

You can book and pay online via our website www.twickenhamchoral.org.uk (£1 PayPal booking fee).

Or you can fill in the form below and send it, together with a cheque made payable to Twickenham Choral Society, to: 30 Chesham Road, Kingston upon Thames, KT1 3AQ

Name

Address

.....

Voice

Tel no

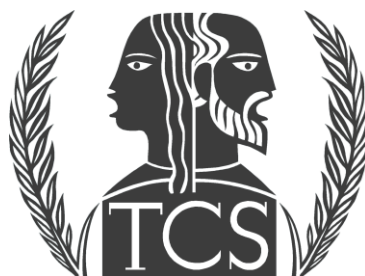

Email

Special dietary requirements

.....

Note: refunds will only be made if the event has to be cancelled by TCS.

	Quantity	Total £
Workshop places @ £20		£
Music hire @ £2		£
TOTAL		£

Come and Sing Parry's Songs of Farewell

at an Open Workshop led by Ralph Allwood MBE at St Andrew's Church, Surbiton, on Saturday 4 March 2017.

Timetable

10.30–11 Coffee, registration and music hire

11–1 First workshop session

1–2 Lunch with soft drinks provided in the refectory

2–4 Second workshop session

4–4.30 Tea and cake

4.30–5 Informal concert

Audience members are welcome to join us for tea at 4pm before the informal concert.

MUSIC: We shall be using the Cramer Musical edition of Parry's Songs of Farewell. A limited number of copies will be available for hire on the day for £2 plus £5 deposit.

Ralph Allwood MBE

'It is easy to see why Ralph Allwood is such an important figure in the choral field. Not only does he possess the technical skills of the best choral trainers and conductors but he also has tremendous enthusiasm, charisma and a wonderful sense of humour.' Friends of Cathedral Music

Ralph Allwood MBE was for 26 years Director of Music at Eton College. He is now Director of the Eton Choral Courses and of the Rodolfus Choir, which is made up of the best singers from the courses; the Rodolfus sound has been described as 'unspeakably beautiful' by Gramophone, and the Choir has produced over 20 CDs, including Parry's Songs of Farewell.

Ralph directs the Old Royal Naval College Trinity Laban Chapel Choir in Greenwich (the only conservatoire chapel choir in the world) and the Chapel Music at Queens' College, Cambridge. He is an Honorary Fellow of University College, Durham. He is Choral Adviser to Novello and to Trinity College, Oxford, and teaches at Trinity Laban Conservatoire and at his old school, Tiffin.

Ralph is founder and conductor of Inner Voices, a choir made up of singers from state schools in London, and has conducted choirs for 40 live broadcasts for BBC Radio 3. He has written much music heard worldwide on radio and television.

In 2012 Ralph was awarded a Doctorate of Music by Aberdeen University, and was made MBE in the same year's New Year's Honours list.

How to get to St Andrew's Church, Surbiton, KT6 4DT

we recommend you use public transport!

St Andrew's Church is five minutes' walk from Surbiton railway station, which is served by fast trains from London and Wimbledon, and is on many local bus routes, including K1, K2, K3, K4, 71, 281 and 465.

- Turn left out of Surbiton Station
- Take second right down St Andrew's Road, the Church is at the end on the left
- St Andrew's is at the junction of St Andrew's Road and Maple Road.

Buses and Car Parking:

- The bus stop closest to St Andrew's Church is outside Sainsbury's in Victoria Road;
- There is no parking for cars at the Church, but there is some free on-street parking in neighbouring side roads leading down to the river.

To keep in touch, join the mailing list:
publicity@twickenhamchoral.org.uk

About Twickenham Choral Society

Under the conductorship of Christopher Herrick for over 40 seasons, the prestigious Twickenham Choral Society, well known for its imaginative and challenging concert programming, has a long-established reputation in South-West London. The current season alone includes performances of Stravinsky's Symphony of Psalms, Rachmaninov's The Bells; MacMillan's Strathclyde Motets, Poulenc's Quatre Motets pour un Temps de Pénitence, Parry's Songs of Farewell; and a wonderful German and English Baroque feast with music by Schütz, Scheidt and Purcell.

TCS is friendly, ambitious and enthusiastic, with the choir numbering over 100 singers. We aim to perform to the highest standard and enjoy the privilege of working with established professional instrumentalists and vocal soloists. Our partner orchestras are the Brandenburg Sinfonia and Brandenburg Baroque Soloists.

Come and hear our concert!

Words and Music with guest star Timothy West

On Saturday 1 April 2017 at 7.30pm, in the delightful and historic setting of St Mary's Church, Twickenham (by the Thames near Eel Pie Island), Twickenham Choral Society will be performing Parry's six Songs of Farewell as well as MacMillan's Five Strathclyde Motets and Poulenc's Quatre Motets pour un Temps de Pénitence.

Book online via our website
www.twickenhamchoral.org.uk
or request tickets by emailing tickets@twickenhamchoral.org.uk

Come and Sing 2017

Open Workshop

PARRY: Songs of Farewell

TWICKENHAM CHORAL SOCIETY

Saturday 4 March 2017

10.30 – 5.00

St Andrew's Church, Surbiton

Guest Conductor
Ralph Allwood MBE

Director of the Eton Choral Courses
Director of the Rodolfus Choir and renowned choral adviser and trainer

www.twickenhamchoral.org.uk